Volunteer Engagement

The Volunteer Engagement team will help you find the best volunteer role or project based on your interests and schedule. Whether you're looking for a one-time commitment or an ongoing volunteer role, we will connect you to a meaningful experience where you can make a lasting difference by supporting United Way's critical impact work in Education, Income and Health.

UNITED WAY VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Read to, tutor or mentor a child. Join United Way as an Education volunteer and change a child's life forever. It takes as little as 30 minutes a week; during school, after school or even on the weekends. Choose from one-time or ongoing opportunities.

Fight childhood obesity. Volunteer at health-related fitness events, including field days and family fitness nights, at one of our local Healthy Zone Schools. The Healthy Zone School Recognition Program is a collaboration between United Way and The Cooper Institute to fight childhood obesity.

Invite others to join you in changing lives forever. Represent United Way as an Ambassador at community events, including sporting events, college events, store openings, music and art festivals, and engage new supporters by sharing the mission of United Way.

Help hardworking families take control of their finances. Each year, hundreds of Earn it! Keep it! Save It! volunteers from every walk of life receive free training to help prepare taxes and return millions of dollars to the local economy by helping low- to moderate-income families.

CORPORATE ENGAGEMENT OPPORTUNITIES

We work year-round to provide companies and organizations effective ways to rally and motivate employees to support the impact work of United Way.

- Strengthen your team and your community by participating with your coworkers at a United Way Day of Impact group volunteer project.
- Educate your colleagues about the pressing needs in our community — and ways they can make a difference — by inviting passionate United Way volunteers to speak at your company.
- See firsthand the impact that United Way-supported programs make in people's lives by touring a United Way service provider.

Many United Way volunteer leaders start to learn about how the organization addresses the pressing needs in the community as volunteers on one of our Community Impact Grant Panels. From January to April, nearly 200 panel volunteers identify the best ways to invest United Way donations in local programs tackling our community's most pressing social needs in Education, Income and Health.
